People spend far too much time dwelling on trivialities. If we knew how much we could accomplish in the same amount of time that we usually alot to watching TV, all the networks would go bankrupt. On the same token, had I spent as much time thinking about what to say for my Senior Quote as I had doing homework, my class rank would be considerably higher. Good bye JJ — Matt UR not Thor. A man walks down a street and asks himself "Why do I walk down this street?" There is a rumble in the distance as an enormous hand reaches down from the Heavens, plucks the poor fellow off his feet, and hurls him into pool of muck. After some months living in the United States, I came to believe that you have to actually live in a country to understand and appreciate it. I heartily recommend to everyone

it and move to another country at

LATIN

CLUB

The Latin Club was spawned this year after increasing pressure from unappreciated Latin scholars who beforehand were able to ply their skills only at the Vatican.

The Latin Club is divided into the Illustrious Senate, and everybody else. Activities thus far include gladiatorial showdowns with the mighty Bataka stick, the reconstruction of the Roman Ruins of rm. 214, worship of strange and unknown gods, and pizza-gobbling while watching cheezy movies. The climax of the year is the annual Orgie in the spring, where the Romans and the Guals compete to enslave the other team. A good time is had by all.

Already the Latin Club has established its place in the roster of H.H.S. foreign language clubs. Having learned such useful phrases as "Semper ubi sub ubi" ("Always wear under wear"), "Bracche tuae aperiuntur" ("Your fly is open"), "Hoc accedit Zambonis!" ("Here comes the Zamboni"), the Latin Club looks forward to forging on to bigger and better things, eventually resulting in a complete takeover of the Foreign Language Department.

We would like to thank our mustachioed, emperor-like faculty advisor, Mr. Doug "Doggie" Ryan, for his undying support, encouragement, and bigscreen T.V.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Concerns Committee

The 91-92 Student Council, led by Pres. Scott Knox, V.P. Joe Pelekis, Sec. Andy Locke, and Treas. Kathy Kelleher had a very successful year esp. in increasing school spirit. Highlights include: the Homecoming Pep Rally, a costume contest for Halloween, a KISS THE PIG CONTEST, and the talent show. They distributed HHS pride pins to the faculty and attempted to make the town aware of the effects of Prop. 2 1/2. They continued to support their foster child, Harry from Haiti, and organized a petition to get the song of the day back on the air. This impeccably organized group also managed to add the second annual fast for world hunger and a can drive to the Holiday Season. All in all, considering the missed class time and the tasty free doughnuts at meetings, Student Council wasn't such a bad deal.

CLASS OF 1992

It's hard to believe four years are over. As the first freshman class at Hingham High School, we are all ready to leave and to go our separate ways. We've accomplished much in these four years, particularly now in our senior year under the leadership of Sarah Vanderweil, President; Tanya Sullivan, Vice-President; Kerry Cannon, Secretary; and Julie DeAgazio, Treasurer.

We've had great success with numerous fundraisers during the past four years from candy sales to the Junior Prom. Our class spirit has grown tremendously and has crescendoed in our final year. The four of us would like to thank the entire senior class for the help and support. It's made all the difference! Good luck in the future, Class of 1992, and let's keep in touch.

OFFICERS

National Honor Society

or sauve que peut

In 1991, the Hingham High chapter of the National Honor Society has made the transition from a purely academic honor to an active contributor to community service. Members have gone to walk in a Juvenile Diabetes Walk-a-thon to raise money for research into curing that debilitating condition, to prepare and serve Thanksgiving weekend meals at Father Bill's Homeless Shelter, to salvage sort for the Boston Food Bank, to donate platelets at the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, to organize canned food drives, and to have some fun after we all graduated.

Membership in the National Honor Society is extended to students entering their senior year who have maintained high academic standards, shown significant leadership abilities, and have demonstrated strong character throughout their years at the high school. NHS members are a varied bunch, ranging from drama club members to sports captains to math team participants. The Orchestra has had a successful and, yes, rewarding year. Under the direction of Mrs. Jane Hallett, the Orchestra is soaring to new heights. Highlights of the year include an applauded performance at the National Honor Society induction ceremony, and the annual Music Dept. Fruit Sale fundraiser, which was extremely successful in raising funds for the trip to NYC in the spring. The Orchestra was well represented at Jr. and Sr. District Festivals, and Fay Ferency received a coveted All State Recommendation. Also, a new group, the Chamber Players, to which an audition is required to get in, was formed this year. This smaller group's sound, which differed from that of the Main Orchestra, was applauded. Special thanks to Mrs. Hallett for her seemingly tireless efforts.

GIRLS'

The Hingham High Girls' Soccer Team, led by tri-captains Tanya Sullivan, Kathy Kelleher, and Kerry Cannon, had a great season despite the record of 4-9-4. The strong contributions of the seniors, Julie DeAgazio, Danielle Decoste, Cristin Keohan, Kriten Mina, Holly Sarni, and Lauri Thorne, along with the captains, helped in some close games. The supportive coaching of Mrs. Joan Williams gave emotional and physical strength to the team, especially after the 1-0 loss to Duxbury, which was, despite the score, a moral victory. The success of this year's team can be attributed to the hard work, dedication, and enthusiasm of the team and parents as well as the girls' willingness to provide a positive atmosphere with each member contributing to the team.

SOCCER

BOYS' SOCCER

Varsity players: Jason Beal, Tom Buba, Peter Cappers, Rick Carberry, Ken Conway, Mike DellaVolpe, Jon Goulding, Peter Goulding, Jason Hanrahan, Andy Hess, Bill Hughes, Joe Kidston, Stephen Lentell, Ben Mayhew, Todd Mehrmann, Mark Osler, Rick Schuhwerk, Brad Taylor, Thomas Lauvsnes.

The 1991 season for the boys' soccer team was far more successful than hoped for. With all of the defensive backs graduated, as well as other losses, the outlook seemed grim. Unexpectedly, the defense became one of the best in the league, led by sweeper Bill Hughes and goalie Ben Mayhew, and helped by Brad Taylor, Andy Hess, and Peter Cappers. The offense was solidified by strong play from league all-star Rick Schuhwerk, Jason Beal, and sophomores Joe Kidston and Jason Hanrahan. The midfield was also strong with three returning starters. Todd Mehrmann and Ken Conway took on new responsibilities and performed well. The midfield was led by EMASS all star Peter Goulding, who received tremendous help defensively from Mike Dellavolpe. Overall, the senior leadership on the team was instrumental in the team's success. The boys should be extremely proud of their season, which ended with a loss to the eventual state champion, Wellesley.

CROSS COUNTRY TRACK

Captains Karen Bartholomew and Carolyn Cullings

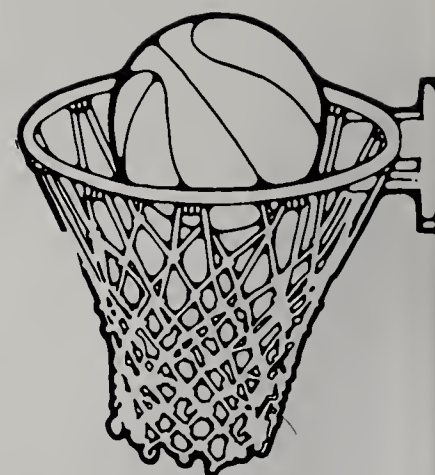

The Hingham High Field Hockey Team had an exciting season. The talent and spirit of the team contributed to the tremendous comeback at the end of the season. The team was led by co-captains Carolyn Cullings and Karen Bartholomew and seniors Allyson Hagerty, Susie Spellman, Brenda Murphy, Meghan Donnelly and Alison Reppucci. The team pulled together to tie arch-rivals Dennis Yarmouth and Bridgewater-Raynham in two of the most inspiring games of the season. The team members want to thank their coach and friend, Ms. Gordon, for her dedicated leadership which the team couldn't have done without.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Captains: Cristin Keohan, Kerry Cannon, and Jen McCarthy

The Hingham Girls' Basketball team has had a successful season in the tough Atlantic Coast League. Led by tri-captains Kerry Cannon, Cristin Keohan, and Jennifer McCarthy, the team soared to a league record of 10 wins and 6 losses. Coach Skip Mortimer will look to advance in the State Tournament this year with this quick, fast-breaking squad.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Hingham Boys' Basketball Team, led by co-captains Pablo Salanova and Stephen Murray, has played well in a very competitive Atlantic Coast League. The veteran team of nine seniors has good outside shooters and aggressive defensive players and are hoping to advance in the State Tournament under the coaching of Dennis Clinton.

Variations' A Hit

Nearly 400 people enjoyed the recent dance production, "Variations," at Hingham High School. The performance was created, directed, choreographed, performed, and produced almost solely by Hingham High School students of "The Impressions Theatre". With Brian Brooks as director/choreographer, Liz Klimartin and Ben Rodde, producers, the dozen Hingham High girls presented a program of dance-modern, jazz, tap and ballet, accompanied by music of Broadway hits of the 1940's.

The dance ensemble included Julie Caldwell and Tracy Cornell, seniors; Sara Besterczy, Meg Brackley, Lynette Condit, Stephanie Jordan, Kristen Piel and Lan-Dinh Ngo, juniors; Rebecca Pearl and Karen Bartholomew, sophomores; and Ginger Merritt, freshmen. Twelve other students worked behind the scenes at stage, light and sound crew.

Receiving credit also is Sara Klimartin, who guided and supported the project to its conclusion.
